Getting to Treviso

Treviso airport is an international airport located 3km west-southwest of Treviso and approximately 31km away from the city of Venice. Treviso Airlink is the direct connection service between Canova Airport and Treviso central station (city centre). The bus has a convenient arrival/ departure covered area in front of the airport entrance, while in Treviso the bus stop is located in front of the station entrance with an easily identifiable stop, with the historic city centre just 800m away.

The journey time is 15mins and runs direct between the two locations every 30mins. From Treviso the first bus departs 06.23 and the last 21.53 while from the Airport the first bus departs 06.40 and the last 22.10.

A two day ticket costs €4.00 while a three day ticket costs €6.00. There are also options for bus and rail tickets to purchase.

Tickets can be purchased via the link above or by using the MOMUP App on your smartphone.

From Venice Airport

Venice Marco Polo Airport is located approximately 30km (30mins) from Treviso and the quickest way between the two is by bus. A return journey is around 40mins.

Also options for combined bus & rail, including a bus into Venice Mestre and then train to Treviso Centrale, as well as a direct taxi.

Things to see and do around Treviso

Aside from the game which takes place on Saturday (KO 1.55pm local) in the Stadio Comunale di Monigo, Treviso quite simply is not another Venice. It's actually a rather unique place which represents the perfect balance between the natural riches and culture of the Veneto region, where countryside and green hills culminate in the splendour of wood and brick houses adorned by frescoes and has medieval feels that envelope the city which is also a magnet for industry and manufacturing in the North-East.

The joy of Treviso is that the old city centre is relatively compact and pedestrianised which means exploring on foot is a joy. We're told it's quite easy to get lost in the small streets between the Cagnan and Buranelli rivers however you'll discover a myriad of artistic wonders from art deco to friezes to vaults, shop signs and Roman mosaics!

For art lovers there are impressive works of art such as a painting of the Annunciation in the Malchiostro Chapel of the Duomo as well as the Santa Caterina museum which houses a fresco cycle by Tommaso da Modena.

For the place to see and be seen, then the high numbers of cafes and restaurants around the Palazzo dei Trecento which was nearly destroyed by Allied bombing forces in 1944 is where you should make your way to. There are also lots of good restaurants around Via Inferiore where you can indulge in many of the local specialities such as local Prosecco as well as Tiramisu which was devised here in the 1960's.

Supporters HQ

We're encouraging as many of you as possible to assemble at the stadium on the morning of kick-off. The Stadium bar will be open from 12.30 and as we know from previous away games, the sights and sounds of the visiting support have always given the team the lift they need so we're asking you to do the same again for this game.

Once the match is over we're delighted to announce that the Celtic Pub will serve as a meeting spot for our Supporters when you're back in the city. Located on Via Roma, 32, this friendly and welcoming establishment has been the location for many travelling supporters for post-match debriefs and analysis from various other teams during their stays in Treviso.

Getting to the Stadium

The Monigo stadium is located four kilometres from the historic centre of Treviso. It was built and inaugurated in 1973 and has a capacity of 5,000 seats – split between 2 covered stands.

The stadium is equipped with bars and other dining facilities, a traditional clubhouse as well as the club shop amongst a range of other facilities for the teams and travelling press.

Public Transport

From Treviso Centrale you can take a number of buses to the Stadio. Line 112 and Line 101 both run close to the stadium and then you would need to walk on foot for the rest of the journey, total time of which is between 25 & 30 mins.

For Line 112, take the bus from Centrale to Stabilimento Osram (13mins) and then walk for approx. 1km on foot to the Stadio.

For Line 101, take the bus from Centrale to Treviso Piazzale Pistoia (7mins) and then walk for approx. 2km on foot to the Stadio.

A taxi from Centrale to the Stadium takes around 6mins while the walk is around 45mins.

Shop at Monigo

The Benetton Rugby Shop inside the Stadium of Monigo stocks a wide range of sporting and casual items for all ages and is worth a visit. The shop is open Mon – Fri from 11.00-18.30pm and also during home game times. Via Olimpia 2, - 31100 Treviso
