MUNSTER RUGBY'S HIGH PERFORMANCE LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

At Munster Rugby, we know a thing or two about ambition, excellence and success.

Professional Rugby players must be able to perform at their peak at a moment's notice during a game—making key decisions second by second in a high pressure environment to achieve impactful results.

In a first in the Irish market, we have taken these learnings and tailored them for leaders like you.

Working with The University of Limerick we have developed a world-class High Performance Leadership Programme.

Each programme will cater for a maximum of 16 attendees to ensure the focus is on you at all times.

When you join us at the world class Munster Rugby High Performance Centre, we work with you to measure and act upon three key principles in your every-day life: Fitness to Perform, Energy Management, Balance & Alignment personally and your workplace.

We also work with you on transferring these skills into your leadership abilities, bringing them to life for you and your company.

During the 2.5 days, you have an opportunity to learn alongside some of the best educational minds in the country who also work closely with those in business & understand the challenges you face.

You also get to spend time with current Munster players and management in understanding how they apply the same values in their high performance environment.

This is a unique opportunity for your company's current and future leadership to energise your minds and your bodies and fulfill your ambition alongside like minded leaders from businesses throughout Europe and beyond.

Ensure that you all can personally meet the significant demands of your job, now and well into the future.

As John Brennan, Grocery Director with Tesco Ireland noted when completing the course - "It changed my life".

Now you can too.

FEEDBACK FROM CUSTOMERS:

John Brennan, Director Grocery, Impulse and Alcohol, Tesco Ireland.

Choosing the course.

Within the last six months I have become a director in Tesco Ireland. As part of preparing for that I sat down with my HR Director, Geraldine Casey, to look at what the best High Performing Leadership programmes would be for me.

Key results from the programme.

The whole programme has helped me to look after my body better which has enabled me to look after my mind. I find that I have a lot more to deal with what is a really busy and stressful job.

Addressing work life balance after the course.

The initial feedback of everybody on the course was – “I don’t have time”. What we learned on the course is that we have time, it’s how you use it. There is no such thing as not eating, or fueling right, that’s just about preparing right. The course has led me to striking a better work and life balance, managing my diary and having the right time for my family.

What attendees can expect.

I was able to set a benchmark for where I am, mentally and physically. Quickly, early on day two I began to realise that just by doing what was recommended on the course, how much more mentally sharp I was. That was my eureka moment. It transformed me, what it meant to my lifestyle, both in work and at home.

This is for those who aspire to leading high performing teams. There is such a benefit when you understand that your health is your wealth. The benefit this can bring to them and their organisation is phenomenal.

“IT IS BRILLIANT FOR WHERE RESILIENCE IS KEY, WHERE 12 HOUR PLUS DAYS ARE THE NORM AND ITS HECTIC FROM START TO FINISH”.
