AMENDMENTS ALTERATIONS

1. (i) Notice of any amendment or alterations to these Bye Laws, together with the names of the proposer and seconder (in each case being a paid up, member of a Club, an officer of a Club, or a club or an Officer or a Board member) of every such amendment or alteration shall be sent in writing via post or email to the Honorary Secretary of the Branch at least 14 days prior to the Annual General Meeting and notice of all such amendments or alterations shall be sent by the Honorary Secretary of the Branch to each Club or Associate Club and the Trustees at least one week before the said AGM of the Branch and shall not be considered unless such notice has been given.
- (ii) No Article of these Bye Laws shall be altered, rescinded or added to without the consent of at least two-thirds of the delegates present and voting.
- (iii) Changes to these Bye Laws shall comply with the Laws and Regulations of the Union. Where such Laws and Regulations of the Union are changed or amended, the Board is authorised to amend these Bye Laws and notify the Branch Committee and other Committees accordingly.
2. These Bye Laws may be amended or rescinded under the foregoing procedure to enable the Branch to be converted from its present form as an unincorporated association into a company registered under the Companies Acts 2014 (as amended or replaced) or to form a company for specific purposes as required by the Branch.
3. Any such amendment shall authorise any seven members of the Branch Committee to be designated by the Branch Committee to subscribe to the memorandum of association and articles of association of such a company.
4. The immediately preceding amendment shall authorise the transfer of all property of the Branch to the said company free of the trusts presently affecting same, imposed by these Bye Laws or arising out of the Branch's present unincorporated association.
5. (i) These Bye Laws can only be altered or amended at an AGM or by a Special General Meeting. However, in unforeseen circumstances, the Board in conjunction with the Officers may amend any particular provision provided it is in the best interests of Munster Rugby and such amendment is ratified as soon as possible by the Branch Committee in the first instance and subsequently by the Branch at its next General Meeting.
- (ii) In accordance with Article 7, the Appendices and Schedules may be amended by the relevant Standing Committee.
