Match ticket prizes allow entry only to the match and the winner is responsible for the behaviour of themselves and their guests whilst enjoying the prize. The winner will be subject to the relevant match ticketing terms and conditions and any and all relevant ground rules. The Promoter reserves the right in its absolute discretion to exclude the winners and/or guests from participation in the promotion if the winner and/or their guests fail to comply with the directions of the Promoter or any companies associated with the prize or the winner and/or guests act in a manner that is dangerous to themselves or to the public or is anti-social in any manner or which causes a disturbance or nuisance to others.

11. The Promoter is not responsible for the prize winners and/or guests not taking advantage of the prizes due to health or any other reasons.

12. The winner takes responsibility that all players that take part in a training session are fit and healthy to participate. Winners and other entrants who are pregnant, have a pre-existing medical condition or have any other health concerns may not be able to participate in certain prizes and sport sessions. Please consult a health professional before taking part in any training session. Training may include discussion of nutrition and fitness. However, nothing in any session should be treated as a substitute for health or medical advice, diagnosis or treatment.

13. All prizes are non-transferable, non-refundable and cannot be exchanged.

14. Entry Criteria: All entries will be judged by an independent panel on the following 3 points:
   1) Community Impact – how does your club embody the true meaning of ‘community spirit’ both on and off the pitch?
   2) Inclusivity – how is your club providing opportunities in rugby across age, gender, ethnicity and mixed ability?
   3) Innovation – what new or innovative techniques are you using to encourage more people to participate and benefit from their involvement in the sport?

15. Shortlist Selection: After the closing date all entries that meet the entry criteria will be judged and a shortlist of 6 shortlisted clubs will be announced in January 2020 (w/c 13.01.20). The judging panel will be formed of Gallagher ambassadors Ugo Monye and Danielle Waterman, representatives from the Gallagher Premiership Rugby community and at least one other independent person. There will be 6 shortlist prizes awarded.

16. In the event of any dispute the majority decision of the independent judging panel is final.

17. Shortlist Notification: The winners will be notified by 17th January 2020 by email to the email address they entered the promotion with. The winners must claim their prize within 10 working days of the notification by responding to the email they have received. While the Promoter will make reasonable efforts to contact the winners, if a prize is unclaimed after this time, it will lapse and the Promoter reserves the right to offer the unclaimed prize to a substitute winner selected in accordance with the promotion rules.

18. Upon claiming a prize, Prizewinners will be contacted by the Promoter to organise their prize.

19. The Social Media Vote: A public vote on social media will contribute towards the shortlisted club’s score, to help determine the overall winner of the competition. During the training sessions, we will capture ‘a day in the life’ behind-the-scenes video with all six shortlisted clubs, with a representative from each club explaining why their club should be the winner. The edits will then be shared on social media after all the training sessions are finished, via the clubs’ channels. The shortlisted clubs will be encouraged to share the videos on social media to garner support and drive engagement. To vote, the public will need to reply in the comments of the posts, entering #GallagherRCOTS and the club they think should win. The club who gets the most votes will earn 10 points to its overall score; the club with the second most votes will earn 8 points to its overall score; the club with the third most votes will earn 6 points to its overall score; the club with the fourth most votes will earn 4 points to its overall score; the club with the fifth most votes will earn 2 points to its overall score; the club with the sixth most votes will earn 0 points to its overall score. The Social Media Vote is limited to one entry per day, per email address, per profile. The social media vote will open 09:00, 25th May 2020 and will close at midnight, 31st May 2020. Only entries received by the deadline will be eligible to participate (midnight, 31st May 2020).

20. Overall Winner Selection: Once all 6 training sessions are complete and content has been captured for the social vote, the judging panel will vote for the club they believe should be the overall winner, using the criteria (Community Impact, Inclusivity and Innovation). Each club will be given a score out of 100 with Community Impact, Inclusivity, Innovation counting for 30 each and the Social Media Vote counting for 10 maximum.
