

STAGE FOUR - GATESHEAD

TUESDAY 10 SEPTEMBER

Coming to Gateshead for the OVO Energy Tour of Britain stage start on Tuesday 10 September?

Please consider the following information when planning your journey ahead of race day.

*** REMEMBER: stage three of the 2019 OVO Energy Tour of Britain finishes on Grey Street, Newcastle, on Monday 9 September! *****

ACCESSIBILITY

RAIL: Served by LNER, CrossCountry, Transpennine Express and Northern Trains, Newcastle station is approximately a 20-minute walk from the stage four start.

- Plan your journey at National Rail

METRO: Gateshead station is a 15-minute walk away from the stage start on South Shore Road.

- Plan your journey at Nexus

BUS: Gateshead Interchange is the main bus hub and is a 15-minute walk from the stage start.

- Plan your journey at Nexus

CAR PARKING: Parking is available at Quarryfield Road car park (NE8 3AE). Spectators MUST be parked no later than 10:15 - access will be restricted after this.

ROAD CLOSURES

South Shore Road on Gateshead Quays will close to traffic at 20:00 on Monday 9 September. Access to car parks on Mill Road and South Shore Road will also be restricted from this time.

gateshead.gov.uk