The Tour of Britain, the UK's most prestigious cycle race, returns to Nottinghamshire this September. Come and watch on Wednesday 6 September – it's FREE to attend!

The Tour of Britain races through Nottinghamshire in 2022

Over 100 of the world's top professional cyclists will be racing in stage four of the Tour of Britain, setting off from the Sherwood Forest Visitor Centre (near Edwinstowe) on a 166-kilometre (103-mile) route through Nottinghamshire to the finish at Newark-on-Trent.

Along the way the race will pass through communities across Nottinghamshire, including Worksop, Harworth, Retford, Ollerton, Southwell, and Tuxford, plus the beautiful surroundings of Clumber Park.

Discover the stage route and plan your visit to the Tour of Britain by using the interactive map and downloading the stage timetable from our website:
