The Tour of Britain, the UK's most prestigious cycle race, will be racing along roads near you this September as the race comes to the East Riding of Yorkshire. Come and watch on Tuesday 5 September – it's FREE to attend!

Over 100 of the world's top professional cyclists will be racing in stage three of the Tour of Britain from Goole to Beverley over a 153-kilometre (95-mile) route through the beautiful Yorkshire Wolds and East Riding.

From Goole the route will take in Market Weighton, Driffield and Bridlington, before racing down the coast to Skipsea (where riders will battle it out in the cottages.com Sprint) and Hornsea.

Turning back inland the race will head to Beverley for the exciting finish on the Westwood.

Discover the stage route and plan your visit to the Tour of Britain by using the interactive map and downloading the stage timetable from our website: tourofbritain.co.uk/stages/stage-three
