STAGE 1

The Women's Tour, the world's leading women's cycle race, will be speeding along roads near you this October. Come and watch the 2021 Grand Départ in Oxfordshire on Monday 4 October – it's FREE to attend!

Our opening stage will see the world's top riders tackling a 147 kilometre (91 mile) route from Bicester to Banbury. The stage loops around Oxford via Headington, Cowley, Clifton Hampden and Abingdon before turning north towards Banbury through Eynsham, Bladon, Deddington and Hook Norton. An exciting loop will give fans at the finish by Banbury Cross the chance to see the race twice.
