

FISA Statutes & Related Bye-Laws in force in 2016	Proposed Changes for the 2017 Extraordinary Congress (at 301116)	FISA Statutes & Related Bye-Laws in force as of 2017
	APPENDIX 1 BYE-LAW TO ARTICLE 4 – Autonomy of Member Federations Claims by a member federation of external interference: In the event that a member federation, or another interested party, claims interference by a party external to the member federation, the following documents may be requested by the FISA Executive Committee in order to investigate and evaluate the case: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Reports from FISA officials / recognised organisations, including: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. FISA Continental Representative</li> <li>b. Continental Rowing Confederation</li> </ol> </li> <li>2. Documentation from the member federation, including but not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. A copy of the latest Statutes in one of the official languages of FISA;</li> <li>b. A list of the recognised rowing clubs in the country with a list of their active affiliated members;</li> <li>c. The minutes of the most recent General Assembly, including the delegateparticipants' list and signatures;</li> <li>d. Proof of attendance at the General Assembly of a majority of rowing clubs in the country;</li> <li>e. Recent confirmation from the National Olympic Committee that it is the recognised national federation for Rowing;</li> <li>f. Any evidence which documents interference by an external organisation or authority.</li> </ol> </li> </ol> If appropriate, especially if there is evidence of government interference, FISA will notify and consult with the IOC and/or any other pertinent sport organisation. Following its investigation, the FISA Executive Committee shall take any measure it considers appropriate.	APPENDIX 1 BYE-LAW TO ARTICLE 4 – Autonomy of Member Federations Claims by a member federation of external interference: In the event that a member federation, or another interested party, claims interference by a party external to the member federation, the following documents may be requested by the FISA Executive Committee in order evaluate the case: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Reports from FISA officials / recognised organisations, including: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. FISA Continental Representative</li> <li>b. Continental Rowing Confederation</li> </ol> </li> <li>2. Documentation from the member federation, including but not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. A copy of the latest Statutes in one of the official languages of FISA;</li> <li>b. A list of the recognised rowing clubs in the country with a list of their active affiliated members;</li> <li>c. The minutes of the most recent General Assembly, including the participants' list and signatures;</li> <li>d. Proof of attendance at the General Assembly of a majority of rowing clubs in the country;</li> <li>e. Recent confirmation from the National Olympic Committee that it is the recognised national federation for Rowing;</li> <li>f. Any evidence which documents interference by an external organisation or authority.</li> </ol> </li> </ol> If appropriate, especially if there is evidence of government interference, FISA will notify and consult with the IOC and/or any other pertinent sport organisation. Following its investigation, the FISA Executive Committee shall take any measure it considers appropriate.

Comment [EW1]: Changes in this colour reflect changes made by JCR, LT and Denis