

Jobs

The German Rowing Federation, situated in Hannover, Germany is advertising the new position of

U19 Development Coach

The position entails the following core requirements

- Leading the U19 national development
- Coordination of existing regional groups
- Liaising with the state rowing coaches
- Alligning the national and regional pathway programs
- Coordinating the seamless cooperation with Olympic Training Centers
- Developing and implementation of coaching methodologies for the development program
- Coordination and implementation of relevant training and competition schedules
- Coordination and implementation of athlete talent ID programs

Prerequisites are:

- A proven history in the successful work of youth development in pathway programs
- Successful coaching history at international regattas
- Excellent written and verbal communication and interpersonal skills including the ability to build and maintain relationships
- An ability to prioritize tasks and work under pressure with excellent attention to detail.
- Strong organizational skills
- Drivers license
- Motorboat license
- Academic history in sports, coaching, rowing

The position will be initially limited until 31.12.2020.

To apply please send your curriculum vitae and cover letter via email, outlining why you would be an outstanding candidate for this role to DRV's high performance director Mario Woldt at mario.woldt@rudern.de