

Jobs

The German Rowing Federation, situated in Hannover, Germany is advertising the position of

Men's Skulling Head Coach

The position entails the following core requirements

- Leading the men's skulling senior team
- Close cooperation with the regional coaching team at the central rowing base in Ratzeburg/Hamburg
- Close cooperation with the senior rowing staff at DRV and relevant state coaches
- Alligning the national and regional pathway programs
- Coordinating the seamless cooperation with Olympic Training Center in Ratzeburg/Hamburg
- Developing and implementation of coaching methodologies for the continuous success of the elite program in Tokyo 2020
- Coordination and implementation of relevant training and competition schedules
- Implementation of the central athlete tracking system
- Daily coaching of a local training group

Prerequisites are:

- Successful coaching history at international regattas
- Academic history in sports, coaching, rowing
- Excellent written and verbal communication and interpersonal skills including the ability to build and maintain relationships
- An ability to prioritize tasks and work under pressure with excellent attention to detail.
- Strong organizational skills
- Drivers license
- Motorboat license

The position will be initially limited until 31.12.2020.

To apply please send your curriculum vitae and cover letter via email, outlining why you would be an outstanding candidate for this role to DRV's high performance director Mario Woldt at mario.woldt@rudern.de