Summary Instructions for Rowers and coxwains

- A pre-race briefing is held in the Clubhouse before the races to review and explain the race rules and instructions. Attendance is compulsory for all coxswains and strokes
- All races are rowed according to the 'Brugge Boat Race' race rules, in addition to the FISA and the KBR (Royal Belgian Rowing Association) regulations.
- Teams must be ready to embark 90 minutes before the start of their race. Embarkation is done by order of bow number, in reverse order, under the direction and instructions of the marshals and the umpire.
- The boats have to row up to the starting zone at Nieuwege Bridge.
- The pre-start will be given from Nieuwege Bridge (before the starting line).
- Marshals assist the umpires during the race. Marshals supervise the correct implementation of the 'Brugge Boat Race' regulations. Their instructions must be followed at all times.
- Failure to observe by marshals' or umpires' instructions may result in time penalties or even disqualification. This is the exclusive responsibility of the jury.

Saturday

- The start will be a "flying start".
- When reaching the Assistant Starter the two boats must come to stand still next to each other in their assigned lanes.
- Every minute the Assistant Starter will give clearance to two boats to approach the starting line
- The time measurement is started for each boat individually as they cross the starting line.
- The eights have to stay in their lane until they have passed the first bend (after 400 meter).

Sunday

- The start will be a "flying start".
- At the prestart the boats will lie still.
- Every 15 seconds a boat will start on sign of the Assistant Starter.
- The time measurement is started for each boat individually as they cross the starting line.
- There will be a 10 minute interval between the start of the last boat of the 4x-, 4x+, 4- (senior, students and juniors) and the start of the first of the 2 x, 2-, 2+, 1x (master, recreational and mixed).
