

FISA Statutes & Related Bye-Laws in force in 2016	Proposed Changes for the 2017 Extraordinary Congress (at 081216)	Explanations
	APPENDIX 3 BYE-LAW TO ARTICLE 18 – Recognition of Continental Rowing Confederations To be recognised by FISA, a Continental Rowing Confederation shall provide the FISA Council with the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A formal application to the Executive Committee no later than three months before the date of the Congress. 2. A formal undertaking to observe FISA's Statutes, Rules of Racing, Bye- Laws and Regulations. 3. A copy of its Statutes with a certified translation in one of FISA's official languages. The confederation's Statutes shall not be inconsistent with those of FISA. 4. Upon FISA's request, advice whether the Continental Olympic Association recognises the confederation as a member and whether the statutes of the confederation are consistent with the principles of the Olympic Charter. 5. A formal undertaking to accept as binding and final the decisions of the competent authorities within FISA and in this regard to recognise the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne as the only possible external judicial authority. 6. Details of the membership of its Committee. 7. A detailed report on the activities of the confederation. The Continental Rowing Confederation shall be recognised by a vote of Congress, upon recommendation by the Council.	