

Tour Rowing

Since 1971, rowers of all nationalities, ages and abilities have toured lakes, rivers, canals and seas in Europe, the Americas, Australia and Japan as participants in FISA World Rowing Tours. In order to be considered for a place on a FISA World Rowing Tour, participants must be a competent rowers and be able to row with both sweep and scull oars.

The World Rowing Tour in 2016 will be held in the Salzkammergut region of Austria from 25 June to 3 July. It will be FISA's 53rd World Rowing Tour. <http://www.worldrowing.com/events/2016-world-rowing-tour/event-information>

While the World Rowing Tour is the showcase event, there is a multitude of rowing tours around the World organised by individuals, clubs and National Rowing Federations. They are conducted in all sorts of boats from wonderful traditional boats with fixed seats to C class touring boats to modern coastal rowing boats - in oceans, protected coastal waters, lakes, rivers and canals all over the World.

For links to some of the World's tour rowing websites, see below.

If you are thinking of a holiday, why not combine it with rowing in some of the World's beautiful places. You will find instant friends. The fraternal bond between rowers is very real. Just go online & make your plans.

Canada

Tour rowing is a growing sport in Canada and is primarily promoted through the Ontario Adventure Rowing Association using coxed touring quad sculls. A significant number of tours are scheduled each year – primarily in Ontario Province. <http://adventurerowing.ca/>

Belgium

A number of rowing tours are held on the beautiful waterways of Belgium each year.

A calendar of tours, including an annual tour of the historic Old City of Gent, can be found on the website of the KSRG (Royal Rowing Sport Gent) <http://www.krsg.be/nl-NL/ik-roei-bij-krsg/recreatief-roeien/kalender.html>

Denmark

Denmark has a sea shore of more than 7,000 km and more than 140 local rowing clubs. The clubs undertake tour rowing. Traditionally in in-rigged boats; 2+ or 4+, but more and more often in out-rigged material, such as gig boats and coastal boats. Most clubs organize weekly tour rowing along the shores close to the club, but also longer trips and tours to other shores in- and outside the country. Guests are welcome in Danish clubs, and boats are often lent or rented out for visitors. For further information on a particular shore area, contact the local club. A list of Danish Rowing clubs can be found at: <http://www.roning.dk/Ronetvaerk.aspx>.

The Danish Rowing Federation supports the tour rowing by placing boats in some of the most popular tour rowing areas of the country. These boats are rented out at reasonable fees. Contact and information on the placed boats: Coordinators of out-placed boats, Lise and Allan Pedersen, tel: +45 98 18 27 85 or +45 28 90 49 70, e-mail: lise-p@email.dk and alp@email.dk

As a result of the traditional long distance tour rowing, two long distance competitions have been created; Long Distance Rowing Competition and Marathon.

The Long Distance Rowing Competition is organized as 10 or 25 km races where the teams gather points at five heats taking place during the summer. The Danish Champion is found and celebrated at the final heat in August. For information on the Long Distance Rowing Competition: <http://www.roning.dk/Langdistancekaproning.aspx>.

Two annual marathons are organized. The distance is 42 nautical miles (78 km) that must be executed in a 24 hour time frame.

Contact and information on the long distance rowing competition and marathon: Head of the Long Distance Rowing Competition Committee, Christian Probst, tel: +45 23 63 56 60, mail: chbpr@tdc.dk.

Finland

Finland has a tradition of Tout Rowing, particularly in traditional Church Boats – generally with 14 rowers and a cox. Traditionally Church Boats are fixed seat, but some boats are now made with sliding seats. The boats are sweep oar.

Karelia-Soutu

Karelia-Soutu (Karelia Rowing Tour) is the biggest long-distance rowing event in Finland. It has been held annually since 1985, each year attracting over 1000 participants. The course lies through the heart of the North Karelian Lakeland.

There are classes for all kinds of rowers: solo, pairs, families or even teams. These are divided along two separate routes, one for small boats (203 km) and the other for traditional Church boats - with a crew of 14 rowers plus cox (146 km). The average speed of the church boats is 9.2 kms per hour.

Rowers may participate as a team or single rowers. There are single rowing places available in the church boats, as well as meal packages. Rowing in the small boats and church boats can be combined. The accommodation is organized; rowers may choose between a summer hotel accommodation or camping on the stop over places. There are also transfers organized by bus.
