

What's Next to Rowing – Aiguebelette programme
Friday, 4th September 2015

08:30h Opening Session

Matt Smith, FISA Executive Director
Tricia Smith, FISA Vice President
Jacomine Ravensbergen, FISA Women's Cross Commission Chair

08:40h Panel 1 - FISA Women's Development Strategy

Tricia Smith (Overview- where we have come from)
Jacomine Ravensbergen (Where are we and where are we heading?)

09:10h – 09:25h Questions

09:30h Panel 2 - The IOC policy and the Olympic Solidarity programmes, the gateway for increased awareness and action for gender equality and more women in sport"

Anita DeFrantz, Executive Board member, International Olympic Committee
Nicole Girard-Savoy, IOC Manager, Olympic Solidarity International Olympic Committee

10:20h – 10:35h Questions

10:40h The Women's Sport Leadership Academy 2015 Experience

Sevara Ganiyeva, Uzbekistan Rowing International Specialist; FISA Youth Commission member
Oluode Olubunmi Ola, Nigerian NF Secretary General; Nigerian NOC Women and Sport Commission

10:55h-11:10h Questions

11:15h – 14h20 Networking mission, Finals and lunch break

11:50h World Rowing Championships – A Finals W4-, M2+, LM2-, LM1x, LW1x, LM4x, LW4x

13:30h Lunch

14:40h Panel 3 – Athletes at the heart of the Olympic Movement

Chantal Buchser, IOC Sports Department, Commissions and Projects - Project Manager
The IOC Athlete Career Programme
Lenka Wech, FISA Executive Committee Member
Preparing Rowers beyond sport

15:10h-15h25 Questions

15:30h Olympic Movement structure and case studies

Women's rowing network (FISA/IOC/NFs/NOCs) More Awareness. More Opportunities.
Sheila Stephens Desbans, FISA Development Department Manager

15:45h – 15:55h Questions and working groups setup

How to improve opportunities for female leaders at all roles and levels?
(1) in coaching, (2) management, (3) umpiring and through (4) athlete career programmes

16:00h – Around the Seminar Room – Group Work

Where is your opportunity? Can your NF/NOC play a role? Can FISA help?

16:30h Group Wrap-up Session

17:00h Closing Session.

Tricia Smith, FISA Vice President
Jacomine Ravensbergen, FISA Women's Cross Commission Chair
Jean-Christophe Rolland, FISA President