ROWING IS ABOUT
MOTION
EMOTION

Dear Rowing Friends,

On behalf of the Czech Rowing Association and the Organising Committee I would like to warmly invite you to the Labe aréna Račice for the 2022 World Rowing Championships.

The history of world rowing championships in the Czech Republic, formerly Czechoslovakia, dates back to 1986 when the World Rowing Junior Championships was the first international rowing event to be hosted at Račice.

Another milestone was celebrated here in 1993 when we organised the World Rowing Championships, which I personally missed as an athlete because I ended my rowing career, maybe too early, at the 1992 Olympic Games.

We then organised the World Rowing Under 23 Championships in 2009, in 2010 the World Rowing Junior Championships, and then the European Rowing Junior Championships in 2015. In 2017 Račice staged the very successful European Rowing Championships, and in 2018 we hosted the best juniors at the World Rowing Junior Championships.

We are delighted that in September 2022 the best athletes will return again to Račice for their world championships after a gap of 29 years. I hope that the athletes, coaches and spectators will enjoy their stay in the Czech Republic; our experienced organising team is working hard to achieve this.

Yours in Sport,
Dušan Macháček
President of the Czech Rowing Association

The Czech Republic is a country in the heart of Europe. With 78 886 km² and more than 10 million inhabitants, it combines the cultures of East and West to truly deserve the label Central Europe.

The Czech Republic attracts millions of visitors every year for its rare culture. Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic, is one of the most beautiful cities in Europe, and since 1992 the historic centre of the town has been included in the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites.

Finally, in sport, the Czech Republic is home to many top teams and athletes. Especially in rowing, the Czechs are among the most successful nations, with world champion and triple medal winner from the 2008, 2012 and 2016 Olympics Ondřej Synek and gold medal winner from 2012 Olympics Miroslava Topinková-Knapková.

Porta Bohemica – Gate to Bohemia

In the northwest of Bohemia, you will find the Ústí Region with the strong and beautiful Elbe River, an important European shipping route. The beautiful meanders of the Elbe River create the famous Porta Bohemica – a breathtaking corner on Earth admired by painters and travellers for hundreds of years.

But Porta Bohemica also has a more important meaning which is represented by the four massive stones – the four regions of the Ústí Region. The romantic Bohemian Switzerland, the magical Czech Central Highlands, the beautiful Ore Mountains and the calm and historically rich Lower Poohří.

Bohemian Switzerland – a land of mysteries and wonders photo of Pravčická brána, Edmontova soutěska z Hřenska

Bohemian Switzerland is the region's biggest tourist attraction. It is a miraculous and unique world, a beautiful land of unprecedented rocky towns, romantic valleys, castles and caverns. You may see all these wonders by passing through one of the world's wonders – the Pravčická brána.

Czech Central Highlands – historic pearls in a country of volcanoes photo of meandry řeky Labe, Litoměřice, Ploskovice

Imagine a calm and picturesque plain around the meanders of the huge Elbe River, from which hills of bizarre shapes rise. And between all these sharply cut cones and round helmets, people built historical dwellings, unprecedented cities, majestic Chateaus and vineyards, ostentatious Churches and monasteries, and military strongholds.

Cities of the Czech Central Highlands

Ústí nad Labem, the industrial centre and the largest city in the Ústí Region. It lies on the banks of the Elbe and occupies an area of 93,95 km² with a population of around 94,000. Despite its rich industrial tradition, forty percent of the city lies within the Czech Highlands and Elbe Sandstone Nature Reserve and near the Eastern Erzgebirge Nature Park. Ústí nad Labem represented by the most important parts of its historical core - the Church of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary and Střekov castle.

Litoměřice is the most important town in the region of Račice, situated on the right bank of Elbe, river, with the second largest city square in the country, mysterious catacombs – a labyrinth of Gothic and Renaissance cellars and the Cathedral of St. Stephen and city walls – all combine to make the royal city of Litoměřice a magnificent tourist destination.

Roudnice nad Labem is a town on the left bank of the Elbe River. Roudnice is one of the oldest Czech towns with earliest records of it dating back to 1167. Close to the town and rising to a height of 456 metres is the hill of Říp where according to legend, the first Czechs settled. The hill and the Romanesque rotunda at its summit are among the Czech monuments. The dominant feature of Roudnice is its baroque chateau and monastery church.

Štětí is a town lying on the right bank of the Elbe river. The first records about the town are dated back to the beginning of the 14th century. Štětí has a population of around 10 000 and it occupies an area of 53,85 km².
