

London Rowing Club is currently recruiting a new Chief Coach.

A challenging and high profile opportunity has arisen for an experienced coach to lead one of the UK's oldest and most prestigious rowing clubs. London Rowing Club was set up in 1856 with the expressed intention of winning events at Henley Royal Regatta. LRC is also a lightweight performance centre and will be represented in several events at the World Championships in Korea later this month.

LRC requires an experienced coach with strong leadership skills to create winning crews from its large and motivated squad of athletes. The successful applicant will be responsible for helping the club achieve its primary objective of winning events at Henley Royal Regatta, as well as overseeing other club activities such as preparing athletes for national trials.

A detailed job description is available and anyone interested in applying for the role should contact the Captain on lrccaptain@gmail.com with a covering letter and CV.
