1.000 m: races: 131-136

2.000 m: races: 5-12, 101-130, 137, 201-204

VI. Qualification:

If there are more than 10 entries, time-trials for races 5 – 12 and 201-204 will be held on Saturday, starting at noon. The race distance for the heats will be the normal race distance.

The first ten rowers or teams will start in the finals on Sunday.

In races 5-12 a B-final will be held, if there are more than 32 entries.

The rowers places 11-20 in the time-trial will participate here.

There will be no time-trials in all other races.

The fastest time rowed here is deciding for the winner.

VII. Late entries:

Late entries are accepted before the official Team Managers Meeting only to complete races.

The entry fee will be doubled for these entries.

VIII. Information on age groups:

In races 101 – 130 the age on the day of the event (26.1.2013) counts! For all other events the year of birth counts for the allocation to races.

IX. Lightweights (LWT):

Weigh-in: takes place 1-2 hours before the start of the first scheduled start of the rower on every competition day.

Weight limits:

Junior woman 17/18 J. 60,0 kg

Junior men 17/18 J. 70,0 kg

Women / Master 61,5 kg

Men / Master 75,0 kg

For the crew competition of the Euro-Open the individual weight limits will apply.

X. Additional information for races 9 bis 12:

A separate result for U23 (1991-1994) will be published, but there will be no separate races.

XI. Euro-Open crew competition (races 201 – 204):

Only two teams per national federation are accepted. The decision shall be made by the National Federation.

Each rower will row on an ergometer. The individual times after 2.000m will be added to a final result.

XII. Races for Fours:

Fitness-Vierer (race 137): race distance: 2.000m. Every 500m the rowers have to change! At least one woman must compete in each team and all rowers must be over 40 (1973).

XIII. Medal ceremony:

Will be held after the finish of the following race.

Rewards: The winners, as well as rowers placed second and third will get a present and a certificate.
