

Job vacancy professional head coach Elite Rowers – A.S.R. Nereus (Amsterdam)

The A.S.R. Nereus is looking for a professional head coach from September 2013, which can guide the (sub-)elite level rowers.

The Amsterdam Student Rowing Club Nereus is the main supplier of the Dutch Rowing Team and has a rich group of (sub-)elite rowers which are competing at both under and above 23 year level. At Nereus there exist a strong competitive sporting culture. The past three years Nereus has won the main event on the Varsity (University Rowing Event). The club strives at a continuation of the current performance towards the top and to maintain elite rowers at the top.

Background

The A.S.R. Nereus is looking for a professional coach from September 2013, which can guide the (sub-)elite level rowers. In the structure of Nereus there is room to support elite rowers and bring sub-elite rowers towards the top of Dutch rowing. At Nereus we have excellent training facilities and high level racing shells.

Job Description

As the head coach of elite rowers you will be responsible for the heavyweight and lightweight men and women. You are expected to maintain contact with the national coaches of the Dutch Rowing Associations and support Nereus' rowers and coaches in their training. We are looking for a professional coach for 15-20 hours per week.

Qualifications

- working with voluntary professional coaches;
- advising on boat use;
- training other coaches;
- Has (inter-)national coach experience;
- Has affinity with the Dutch Rowing Team and Dutch student rowing;
- Is available on weekdays and weekends.

The professional coach has demonstrated knowledge of and experience with:

- Sport Physiology/Exercise Therapy;
- Sport Psychology;
- Teamwork/Teambuilding;
- Leadership and guiding teams coach;

Interested? Contact us.

Steven van Dooren
President
+31 (0) 636128178
praeses@nereus.nl

Lieve Leijssen
Elite Rowing Commissioner
+31 (0) 642186276
wedstrijd@nereus.nl