

APPENDIX 3	APPENDIX S 3
BYE-LAWS TO ARTICLE 18 – RECOGNITION OF CONTINENTAL ROWING CONFEDERATIONS	BYE-LAWS TO ARTICLE 18 – RECOGNITION OF CONTINENTAL ROWING CONFEDERATIONS
To be recognised by FISA, a Continental Rowing Confederation shall provide the FISA Council with the following:	1. To be recognised by FISA World Rowing , a Continental Rowing Confederation shall submit a written application to World Rowing at least three months before the date of the next Congress. provide the FISA Council with the following:	Wording reviewed to provide greater clarity
1. A formal application no later than three months before the date of the Congress;	24. The application must include the following: A formal application no later than three months before the date of the Congress;
2. A formal undertaking to observe FISA’s Statutes, Rules of Racing, Bye-Laws and Regulations;	2.1. A formal written undertaking to: a. Observe FISA’s World Rowing’s Statutes, Rules of Racing, Bye-Laws and Regulations; b. Accept as binding and final the decisions of the competent authorities within World Rowing and in this regard to recognise the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne as the only possible external judicial authority;
3. A copy of its Statutes with a certified translation in one of FISA’s official languages. The confederation’s Statutes shall not be inconsistent with those of FISA;	2.3. A copy of its Statutes with a certified translation in one of FISA’s World Rowing’s official languages. The confederation’s Statutes shall not be inconsistent with those of World Rowing and the Olympic Charter FISA ;	Moved from 2.2. to 2.3
4. Written confirmation whether the Continental Olympic Association recognises the confederation as the continental federation for rowing and that the Statutes of the confederation are not inconsistent with the principles of the Olympic Charter;	2.24. Written confirmation whether that the Continental Olympic Association recognises the confederation as the continental confederation for rowing and that the Statutes of the confederation are not inconsistent with the principles of the Olympic Charter;

5. A formal undertaking to accept as binding and final the decisions of the competent authorities within FISA and in this regard to recognise the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne as the only possible external judicial authority;	5. A formal undertaking to accept as binding and final the decisions of the competent authorities within FISA and in this regard to recognise the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne as the only possible external judicial authority;
6. Details of the membership of its Committee;	6-2.4 Details of the membership governance structure of the confederation and names of the office bearers of its Committee;
7. A detailed report of its activities;	7-2.5 A detailed report of its objectives and activities;
8. Any other information as required by FISA.	8-2.6 Any other information as required by FISAWorld Rowing.
	3. A Continental Rowing Confederation shall be recognised by a vote of Congress, upon recommendation by the Council.	