Where is American Samoa?

What does the tour look like? 6 Days, 7 Stops

Day 1

UTULEI TO LEONE

Day 1 we will launch from South Pacific Watersports in Utulei and make our way to the ancient capital of Tutuila – Leone village. Along the way, you will see the legendary Fatu ma Futi, Marine Sanctuary (Fagatele Bay), and see the awesome views of the brothers Mt. Pioa (aka Rainmaker) and Mt. Matafao.

LEONE TO MALOTA

Day 2 will be a short row to the secluded village of Malota where the Gurr family has resided for generations. Our hosts Donna & Peter Gurr will welcome you with a traditional Samoan feast! This secluded cove and valley is detached from the hustle of modern day life and is welcome opportunity to relax and enjoy paradise!

MALOTA TO MASSACRE BAY TO FAGASA

Day 3 includes a special stop at the infamous Massacre Bay. On December 11, 1787, French explorer Jean-Francois de Laperouse along with 60 men and 2 cutters entered the bay of A'asu. A battle ensued, resulting in the death of 12 Frenchmen. The French government erected a monument in 1883 which still stands today.

Day 3

MALOTA TO MASSACRE BAY TO FAGASA

After a short break in A'asu, your tour will continue along the northern coastline to the village of Fagasa where the village will welcome you with a traditional Samoan ava ceremony and fiafia (traditional song & dance).

FAGASSA TO MASEFAU

Day 4 will take you past several secluded bays and an untouched coastline. You will get an up-close look at Pola island which is inside the National Park of American Samoa. After the boats are stored, we will make our way to Tisa's Barefoot Bar for an afternoon cocktail and pupus.

MASEFAU TO 2-DOLLAR BEACH

Day 5 will take us around the eastern tip of Tutuila, past the island of Aunu'u and into the village of Avaio where 2-Dollar Beach awaits us. We'll have a Samoan BBQ lunch and enjoy the local hospitality!

Day 6

2-DOLLAR BEACH TO UTULEI

Day 6 completes the tour! We will finish off the week with an evening dinner on the DDW beach Café lawn with friends!
