

Sanctions Objection – Protest – Appeal

*This presentation reflects the World Rowing Statutes, Rules of Racing and interpretation of them in effect on Jan 31, 2022.
World Rowing is not responsible for providing updates to this material.*

This presentation will cover the following:

- Sanctions available
- Judicial Process
- Examples

A member of the Jury may impose the following sanctions for a breach of the Rules of Racing

- Reprimand
- Yellow Card
- Relegation
- Red Card
- Disqualification

Note: Event regulations may allow other types of sanction – e.g. Coastal regulations allow for time penalties

Reprimand

- A formal admonishment of a crew when the crew's violation of the rules does not warrant a higher level of sanction

Yellow Card

- A formal warning for a violation of the rules
- Applies to the next race the crew competes in and lapses when the race is complete
- A Yellow Card still applies if there is a Re-Row or postponement of the race
- A crew awarded two Yellow Cards for the same race shall be awarded a Red Card

Relegation (REL)

- Places the crews in last position in a race where the Rules allow (e.g. BUW, Identification violation)

Red Card or Exclusion (EXC)

- For serious and/or repeated breach of the Rules
- A crew is excluded from all rounds of the event

Disqualification (DSQ)

- A sanction for the most serious breaches of the Rules
- Disqualifies a rower or crew from all events in the regatta
- A Disqualified rower may not be replaced by a substitute rower
- No member of a Disqualified crew may compete in another event at the regatta.

Sanction on a Member Federation

- The President of the Jury may provide a report to the Executive Committee on the breach of the Rules
- If the Executive Committee (EC) feels that the sanction that was imposed is insufficient, the EC may:
 - Give notice to the relevant Federation of the breach and additional sanctions that may be considered
 - Invite the Federation to provide a written submission on the issue
 - After considering the report and any submission by the Federation – Apply additional sanctions that the EC considers appropriate

Yellow and Red Cards

- A Jury member should notify the crew of the sanction immediately or as soon as possible
- Where a sanction applies to a future race, the President of the Jury must report the sanction in writing to the team manager
- If the crew is not yet on the water, the Control Commission should inform the crew of the sanction when they launch
- The Starter will announce all Yellow Cards that apply to a race before giving the starting commands
- A crew awarded a Red Card at the start will not participate in the race once it has been informed of the Red Card

FRA EXC / confirm the result

Another example (1)

JM4X SemiC/D

Clash between HUN and CRO in last 50 meter ...

All crews within 1 boat length

HUN excluded by umpire

Finish order:

1.	BLR
2.	USA
3.	GRE
4.	CHN
5.	CRO
6.	HUN

Another example (2)

- Finish order:
1. BLR
 2. USA In principle qualified for FC
 3. GRE

 4. CHN
 5. CRO In principle qualified for FD
 6. HUN

REROW between ???

Another example (3)

Finish order:	1.	BLR
	2.	USA	FC
	3.	GRE
	4.	CHN
	5.	CRO	FD
	6.	HUN

- Only CRO & HUN were affected by clash
- In any case CHN would always been at least 4th
- If CRO would have 1st, 2nd or 3rd, BLR and USA would have been qualified for FC
- REROW between GRE and CRO !

Remark: Protest of GRE was rejected !

Final result: CRO won rerow and was 1st in FC – GRE last in FD
