2025 World Rowing Ordinary Congress

Nomination Form for the Council Election

Rules of Conduct for Elections

1. Scope of application

These Rules of Conduct apply to individuals and the World Rowing Member Federations (MFs), as well as any person or organisation acting on their behalf. These Rules are applicable as soon as a MF informs World Rowing of its wish to nominate a candidate for the World Rowing Council.

2. Principles

The conduct of the individual candidates shall comply strictly with the provisions of this document, the World Rowing Statutes, and the World Rowing Code of Ethics. Candidates and MFs should make no negative comment about a rival candidate(s). The MF of the candidate is responsible for the activities and conduct of the candidate.

3. Printed Materials

Candidates are invited to create an information sheet of a maximum of two A4 size pages (front and back on one piece of paper). In the text, the following points should be addressed: First and Last name, Gender, Year of Birth, Age, Nationality, Education History, Professional History, Sport History.

4. Internet

Candidates may create their own Internet site for informative purposes only.

5. Promotion

Throughout the pre-election period, the promotion of a candidate shall take place with dignity and moderation. The candidate and its MF are entirely responsible for all forms of promotion.

6. Promotion among World Rowing's Member Federations

Candidates may promote their candidacy among the MFs either at the international events to which they have been invited or at international competitions, or by means of sending written documents. The President of the MF will have the opportunity to present their candidate to Congress.

7. Gifts

No gifts or any advantage whatsoever may be given to or received by World Rowing Council or Commission members, World Rowing staff and consultants or representatives of World Rowing MFs. No promise of any kind of advantage may be made including the offer of development assistance or, for example, airplane tickets to any World Rowing event. This prohibition shall be respected by the candidates and their MFs as well as by all those acting on behalf of or supporting the candidate.

The Executive Committee may impose penalties, including disqualification, on any candidate who does not comply with these Rules of Conduct for Elections.

Conflicts of Interest - Declaration Form

Principles

Dear [member of commission/committee/working group etc.], ("World Rowing members")

In order to protect the integrity of the governance and workings of World Rowing's from potential conflicts of interest, World Rowing members must declare their interests using the form below.

This declaration will remain confidential to the World Rowing Governance Function, and relevant Committee or Commission Chairs. Please note that information provided herein will be used by World Rowing for no longer than and where necessary to comply with legal and constitutional obligations. This declaration will be updated on an annual basis, but it is your responsibility to inform World Rowing of any significant changes that occur during the year.

Furthermore, World Rowing members are also required to declare any relevant conflicts of interest regarding matters to be discussed at meetings and, unless agreed otherwise by the meeting Chair, they must not take part in a vote or determinative discussion where such a conflict exists. Any declarations of conflict will be documented in the meeting minutes.

By interests, we consider interests when you or a close member of your family:

- (a) have a financial or beneficial interest in an entity;
- (b) have significant influence over the entity;
- (c) are a member of the key management personnel of the entity;
- (d) have any other position of influence within the entity.
- (e) may have, or be perceived to have, a direct financial or other non-financial benefit from a decision related to the entity.

By entity, we consider the following:

- (a) business companies;
- (b) sports organisations (including but not limited to the International Olympic Committee, National Olympic Committees, International Federations, National Federations, Organising Committees for the Olympic Games, Youth Olympic Games and any World Rowing event); and
- (c) not-for-profit organisations.

If the entity has subsidiaries, the subsidiaries should also be declared.

By close member of your family we consider:

- (a) Your children and spouse or partner;
- (b) Children of your spouse or partner; and
- (c) Dependents of yourself, your spouse or your partner.

Please find the declaration form to be filled in and signed on the next page.

Please add additional lines in each section as necessary to ensure all interests are declared.
